

Macbeth

Dir. Maureen Kilmurry

My second tour with this company, and it was even better the second time round. This show is on most actors' bucket list, and to take a crack at Malcolm, a witch, and Lady Macduff in one go? I feel like I've won the lottery. In addition to that, performing this spooky play outdoors with rain, thunder, and lightning completely adds to the ominous atmosphere, and I couldn't have asked for a better way to perform. Shakespeare's words are meant to be heard outdoors, and it is a gift I will never take for granted.
